Elisabeth and Philippe Morizot welcome you in their hotel restaurant, not far from the Brocéliande Forest and along the canal from Nantes to Brest.

The hotel is located in La Chapelle-Caro, a « Dragon » village. It is situated 40 minutes away from the Morbihan Gulf and 90 minutes away from the Mont Saint-Michel.

Ideal for touring the area, La Chapelle-Caro offers a stay at the heart of the Celtic legends.

The hotel privileged location -in the middle of Brittany- allows the traveller to discover the heritage of this beautiful region. After dropping off your luggage go for your first walk and have a look behind the church. You will discover our 650 year old yew-tree, the Morbihan's oldest.

And if you feel a little braver, why don't you let yourself go for a walk along the canal from Nantes to Brest?

You will pass the Crevy's castle and its dependencies, where René Descartes once stayed.

Finally, if you wish, you can go and meet some of our grower and maker who will welcome you into their farms.
